DE MOLAY COMMANDERY, K. T.

OF BOSTON, MASS.

COMPLIMENTARY TO

DeMolay Mounted Commandery

No. 4, K. T.

OF WASHINGTON, D. C.

JUNE 16TH, 17TH AND 18TH,

1886.

—❖—PROGRAMME—❖—

FOR THE ENTERTAINMENT OF

DE MOLAY MOUNTED COMMANDERY, No. 4,

OF WASHINGTON, D. C.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 16.

The members of De Molay Commandery will assemble at their armory at 6 o'clock A. M. Sandwiches and coffee will be served at 6 1-2 o'clock A. M. Leaving the armory in full Templar regalia, they will march to the New York and New England Railroad Station, where the DE MOLAY MOUNTED COMMANDERY will be received on their arrival at 7.45 A. M., and escorted to their headquarters at the Revere House; leaving their guests, the Commandery will return to the Masonic Temple.

AFTERNOON.

The Sir Knights will assemble at 3 o'clock P. M. at the Revere House, with fatigue caps, belts and white gloves, to take carriages for a ride in the suburbs with their guests.

EVENING.

Through the courtesy of the management of the Boston Theatre, the use of the Theatre has been tendered to De Molay Commandery and its guests from Washington, D. C.

Sir Knights will assemble at the Revere House, Committee Headquarters, at 7 P. M.

THURSDAY, JUNE 17.

The Sir Knights will assemble in their armory at 8 o'clock A. M., in full Templar regalia, and proceed to the Revere House, and from thence will escort their guests to Bunker Hill, where after short exercises the Sir Knights will proceed to the Navy Yard, where the steamer Nantasket will be in readiness at 12 M. to take the Knights and ladies for an excursion down the harbor. Dinner will be served at Deer Island at 1.30 P. M., and in the afternoon, if wind and weather are favorable, the steamer will proceed along the North Shore and across to Minot's Light, returning in the evening.

The steamer Nantasket will be at Rowe's Wharf at 11 A. M., to take on board any ladies who may not visit Bunker Hill, leaving the wharf promptly at 11.30 A. M. for the Navy Yard.

FRIDAY, JUNE 18.

Sir Knights will assemble at the armory at 1 o'clock in full Templar regalia, and march to the Revere House, to attend the grand banquet to be given in honor of our guests at 2 P. M.

At the close of the banquet, the DE MOLAY MOUNTED COMMANDERY will be escorted to the Old Colony Railroad Station, where at 6 P. M. they will take the train for Washington.
